Making Homelessness History!

TPCH Conference Sept. 18 offers outstanding agenda, led by ADOH director, seeks volunteers

Making Homelessness History! is both TPCH's mission and the title of the 2018 TPCH Conference set for Tuesday, Sept. 18, and opening with a keynote speech on "Housing Policy, Priorities, and Initiatives in Arizona" by Arizona Department of Housing Director (ADOH) Carol I. Ditmore.

See the attached program for details.

The conference runs 8:00 am - 4:30 pm at the Viscount Suites Hotel, 4855 E. Broadway Blvd., Tucson.

Making Homelessness History! features 16 breakout sessions by expert presenters in four tracks: Data-driven, Evidence-based Practices; Special Populations; Housing and Real Estate; and Professional Ethics and Boundaries. See the attached schedule.

Registration, at $80, opens late next week, and includes continental breakfast and luncheon. Plan now to attend.

Volunteers, who must make and meet a firm for waived registration, are sought for the following positions.

- Four (4) room hosts. One each will be stationed in each of the four breakout rooms to: orient speakers to the AV equipment; introduce speakers; assist with handouts; assist with questions and answers; and hand out surveys.
- Three (3) registration workers starting at 7:45 am to: assist with name tags, programs and at-door registration (cash and check only); and rotate staffing the registration tables all day.
- Two (2) audio-visual assistants, familiar with PCs, projectors, and their connectors, to be on-call to troubleshoot and assist as needed.
